Broxburn Athletic Colts

Code of Conduct Spectator

1. The following West Lothian Club Code of Conduct in association with Broxburn Athletic Colts (the Club) and Broxburn United Sports Club (BUSC) is based on the concept of fair play, defined by;
   - Respect for the rules
   - Respect for the referees and their decisions
   - Respect for all participants, including team-mates, coaches and opponents
   - Equal participation
   - Maintaining self-control at all times

Spectator conduct

2. West Lothian Council in partnership with the Club and BUSC recommend the following guidelines on Spectator conduct.
   a. Be patient and supportive with young/youth players
   b. Highlight good play from both teams
   c. Emphasise good behaviour at all times
   d. Exercise self control when a goal is scored or lost
   e. Promote positive play
   f. Enjoy the game and highlight positive play from both teams
   g. Promote positive play
   h. Always be in control
   i. Provide a positive environment for youths to play football
   j. Do not criticise match supervisors/referees or speak to him/her in a negative/aggressive manner
   k. Never use bad language
   l. Never criticise any player, coach or official
   m. Never ridicule, or shout at players after mistakes
   n. Spectators should spectate, not become coaches during games
   o. Do not forget your responsibility as role model

3. All adults in attendance must show by example that they are more concerned with the wellbeing of the children and the good of the game, than satisfying their own need for reflected glory.
